<sup>1</sup>The maximum weight for these events is in line with British Rowing rules for the winter period. For men max weight is 75kg, and for women max weight is 61.5kg. All lightweight competitors must meet this limit; there is no additional average crew weight restriction. Any crew that entering lightweight but fail to weigh in successfully will be moved into the equivalent open weight category.

Weigh in arrangements will be emailed out to entrants.

The number of pennant winning categories will be entirely dependent on the entries received.

This year the following pennant categories will be awarded:

- Championship
- Intermediate
- Club
- Freshers

Once entries are closed we will create the draw applying the following principles:

- Banding by CRI for any category (Senior or Masters) with 10 entries or more, up to a maximum of four pennants awarded per category
- Pennants for categories with five or more entries (at the discretion of the Committee)
- Where there are Masters categories with insufficient entries, age groups will be combined up to a maximum of three age groups to create a pennant winning category, eg Mas G/H/I; these combined masters categories will have handicaps applied and will not be banded by CRI

The point distribution for each band will be available once the draw has been published.
